Sheriff Tells Benroth Where To Get Off

WOULD STAGE STRIKERS PARADE

When J. R. Benroth, strike leader for the "Relief Workers Union" asked Sheriff Frank Bennett for permission to stage a strikers parade on the streets of Grayling on Tuesday, he was told that "It is the best thing for you to lay off and let the people work who want to do so."

"The people elect me sheriff of this county to guard them and their property rights and I'm going to do so."

Sheriff Bennett said that if he (Benroth) tries to make trouble for those who want to work that he is all set for him. He and his crew want to come down here to make trouble we will take care of them.

Continuing he said that the people who want to work will have our protection and we won't stand for any interference from Benroth or his crew.

Replying Benroth said, according to Sheriff Bennett, that if you won't stand by us then he was going to quit, and that he was going to get to his out of here and go to Gladwin where he would get to work, and that he would dispose of his sheep.

This appears to be the culmination of a strike staged by the "Relief Workers Union of Crawford County" starting on September 20th when a demand was made upon the local and State Welfare administration for the following:

- 1—A new welfare administrator.
- 2—Increased wages.
- 3—Assurance that we will receive our share of federal commodities furnished this state.

Officers of the state welfare administration waited upon the strikers with the idea of coming to some satisfactory understanding. Francis Reagan, state field representative gave the men every assurance that an agreement would be made to satisfy the men and requested that they meet him individually and relate their grievances.

He held the first meeting at Frederic where he interviewed many of the strikers, and intended to do so in each township wherever there was contention. However this did not go far before the strike leaders refused to try to deal with Reagan and wired the state department to send someone here with whom they could deal. They would meet him here the following Monday, and if they did not comply with the demands of the strike leaders that they would proceed to organize unions in the bordering counties.

While only a comparatively few of the county's welfare workers had joined up with the strikers, Mr. Reagan announced at the time of the first meeting that he had called off all welfare work until such time as the matters could be satisfactorily settled. Accordingly that stopped all welfare work in the county. The men were being paid $16 an hour in cash. Apparently the state department declined to comply with the demands of Benroth and his lawyers for they failed to have the desired representation sent to act in place of Reagan. If representation were formed in neighboring counties, as threatened, we have not heard of it.

In the mean time with the men not working, families were cared for with necessary food and clothing but were not provided with money. Many families felt the need of cash and men wanted to go to work and recently some of those residing in Grayling petitioned the village council to use its efforts to get the work opened again.

Accordingly last week Thursday the local welfare department sent out questionnaires asking some of the men if they desired to begin work the next Monday (Oct. 15th), to reply promptly. The response was so great that some of the projects were opened that day.

According to Sheriff Bennett, Benroth tried to keep the men from working. And accordingly he planned to stage a strikers parade here yesterday. Sheriff Bennett's prompt action and reply seems to have stopped any such proceedings and those men who desire to work should now be able to do so unmolested.

It appears that nothing has come out of the strike that might be of advantage to the strikers. There has been no change in the local administration management and we understand there has been no increase in wages. As far as an equitable distribution of commodities coming into the state for welfare purposes, we understand that Crawford county as well as all other counties, have always been equitably dealt with.

We feel that $16 an hour for labor is hardly enough to meet the actual needs of the average family, and we believe that had this matter been peacefully presented to the administration and the men continued upon their jobs that an increase would have been granted. As it is many splendid citizens who desired to work, have been idle for nearly a month.

DIRECTOR OF CHILD HYGIENE TO GIVE LECTURE

Dr. Lillian R. Smith, director of Bureau of Child Hygiene of the Michigan department of health will be in Grayling next Monday and in the evening will give a lecture at the American Legion hall. The meeting is called for 8:00 o'clock, and all those interested in maternity and child health are invited to be present. Doctor Smith professes that this meeting be limited to women, as she feels that they will feel more free to ask questions. All mothers as well as the younger women of the county are invited.

Following Doctor Smith's address, a discussion dealing with the subject will be had.

The American Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring the meeting and hope for a good attendance. This meeting will take care of the first of the county health and welfare meetings that are held during the winter. The Auxiliary ladies will serve refreshments.

Rogers' Finest Work In "Judge Priest"

Henry B. Walthall Is Acclaimed In Return To Screen In Part of "Judge Priest"

FOX

The Characters:

Judge Priest.....Will Rogers

.....Burton Churchhill
Mrs. Caroline Priest.....

Juror No. 12.....Francis Ford
Aunt Lussy.....Hattie McDaniel
Jeff Ronderster.....Stepin Fetchit

By Len G. Shaw

It is not enough to dismiss this picture with the mere statement that it's a natural for Will Rogers. It is true that the character of Judge Priest fits the slow-witted, even-tempered actor like the proverbial glove. But having slipped into that glove, Rogers is not content, as has sometimes been the case, to be just himself. He builds the part up until it becomes outstanding in his long list of screen portrayals. Indeed, there does not come to mind another quite so touch it in quiet dramatic intensity, or quaint humor. It is embellished with little dashes of humaneness that warm the heart and sometimes make you almost forget in admiration of this homespun figure the romance which wanders its way so pleasantly through the story.

And for once Rogers has real competition in the person of Henry B. Walthall. The Little Colonel of "The Birth of a Nation" comes back to the screen to register mightily as the minister upon whom the community depends in times of trouble. Walthall, quietly, unemotionally, but convincingly, recounts the heroism of the man on trial there is something radically wrong with your emotions.

Rogers, of course, is the straightforward, unassuming judge, with a greater grasp of common sense than of Blackstone, who fosters the romance between his nephew and the mystery girl of the village, against the opposition of the boy's ambitious mother. In so doing after stepping down from the bench at the demands of a bombastic political opponent, he clears up the girl's clouded parentage with a thoroughness that brings a stirring climax.

Tom Brown and Anita Louise are lovable lovers. David Landau turns in one of his fine characterizations as the taciturn stranger, and everyone in the cast comes off with flying colors, including Francis Ford with unerring accuracy, Stepin Fetchit, and mountainous Hattie McDaniel, with her booming singing voice.

Laid in a little Kentucky town in 1890, the Civil War animosities that flare provide much of the comedy, supplied by a group of Confederate vets who are a show to themselves.

"Judge Priest" will be shown at the Rialto Theatre October 21-22.

BRUCE RUTLEDGE DIES AT ROSCOMMON

Bruce Rutledge, 57, prominent Roscommon businessman, died at his home there late Saturday night. Ill for the past year, he had only been confined to his home for the past week.

Engaged in the hardware business, he was also vice-president of the Roscommon State bank and president of the local school board, and was influential in civic and political affairs.

Twenty years ago he came to Roscommon to engage in the hardware business under the firm name of Rutledge Brothers, in which he was actively engaged at the time of his death.

Surviving are the widow, two sons, Stuart and Blaine, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crozier Rutledge.

Funeral services were held at Congregational church at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning and the body was taken that afternoon to Port Huron for burial.

Hit Run Drivers Get Prison Sentences

Judge Smith held court here Wednesday morning for the purpose of arraigning Charles Long and Katherine Deckrow on a charge of "leaving the scene of an accident." Both appeared in court and after hearing the prosecuting attorney read the charge that was filed against them, each pleaded guilty.

The accident occurred on September 6th when the car owned by Long and driven by Mrs. Deckrow, struck and severely injured Alderman Al Roberts near the Ausable river bridge. It is reported that both Long and Mrs. Deckrow were taken up soon after and taken to Mercy hospital and it was found that he had suffered the fracture of six ribs and was severely bruised and injured.

Long was sentenced to serve from two to five years in Jackson prison, and Mrs. Deckrow from nine months to five years in the Detroit house of correction. They were taken away this morning. The young woman leaves behind four young children besides her husband. Long came here with his wife from Mississippi.

TAXPAYERS APPRECIATE GREEN'S EFFORTS

William Green of Hillman, our representative in the state legislature, was in Grayling Tuesday, having stopped off while returning home from the Bruce Rutledge funeral in Roscommon. Mr. Green is again candidate for reelection.

Grayling people fully appreciate Mr. Green's loyalty to our interests in the past, and every taxpayer in the county can well appreciate his masterpiece when he placed all state owned property on a tax of 10c per acre, which goes into the fund of the county in which the lands lie. Altogether since the passage of the Green Bill, No. 306, three years ago, there has come into Crawford county the sum of $16,665. Nearly $6,000 will be added to this amount this year.

That certainly is effective legislation and officials who have to operate the county and township governments fully realize what it means for this county to get this financial relief.

This money comes out of the Conservation department funds, and is certainly a fair plan, especially since Crawford county furnishes a large part of the fish and hunting area of the state. We should have some returns from the value of state owned land within our county.

Economy is the watchword these days, and our One Cent Sale means just that. Wait for the sale Oct. 17th to 20th. Mac & Gidley, Drugists.

Sheriff Frustrates Jail Break

Sheriff Frank Bennett stopped in Monday to break up the plans for a jail escape when he discovered evidence of such attempt by prisoner Henry Leaman.

The latter had worked a combination cell lock and obtained a strong iron rod with which he pried off one of the window grates and apparently was awaiting nightfall to make his escape.

The combination lock was one that automatically locked and unlocked the entire cell block and hadn't been in use for several years past, due to the loss of the combination. Mr. Bennett had tried unsuccessfully ever since he has been sheriff to find the combination and had offered reward to anyone who would open the lock. Several had tried but failed but young Leaman seemed to be the master mind to do the trick. He didn't stop with solving the combination but when he got it open he smashed the whole works, rendering it useless.

Leaman is serving a 90 day's solitary confinement sentence for breaking and entering.

Mercy Hospital On Approved List

Grayling Mercy Hospital has again been accorded a place on the approved list of hospitals in Michigan by the American College of Surgeons. It is among 2,480 hospitals in the United States and Canada to be placed on this list, and we note with pride it is the only one here in the north so rated. Mercy Hospital, Cadillac is the nearest hospital with a similar rating.

To obtain such approval a hospital must comply with certain requirements, which include particularly the maintenance of organized medical staffs of ethical, competent surgeons, complete medical records and many other important requirements.

We are proud to know that we have such an institution in our midst, and congratulate the Sisters of Mercy and medical staff, who are responsible for the fine attainment.

STREETS BEING RE-SURFACED

Through the cooperation of Village Council, the State Highway Department, and the County Road Commission, the village streets are being re-surfaced with a three inch course of road gravel. For some time the highway department has had a gravel plant in operation taking out material for the Pines road in Maple Forest township, and arrangements have been made whereby this plant will work for a limited time for the village. Portions of Ionia, Lake, Coaries, Oliver, and Alger streets have already received this treatment and it is hoped to extend it to as many others as is possible in the short time during which material may be obtained.

The cost of this operation is taken care of by returns from the gasoline and weight tax revenues which are returned to the Village through the County Road Commission for use in street maintenance and improvement. As far as is possible the council hopes to defray all costs of street upkeep from this source of revenue.

GRAYLORD-GRAYLING AT IT AGAIN

Graylord and Grayling, long traditional foes in many athletic departments appear to be adversaries in an entirely different contest, it is true, but one that will incorporate plenty of endeavor and work on the employees of the Michigan Public Service Company of both towns.

Local manager Don Reynolds of the Grayling store has just accepted a challenge issued by Al Hanes, manager of the Graylord store to fight out a lamp-campaign duel from October 15 to November 15. The losers to treat the winners with a Thanksgiving dinner.

Graylord it is true has the edge with three employees to sell lamps, but the local boys are willing to discount this handicap on the basis of good sportsmanship.

COL. HOGARTH DEAD

George R. Hogarth, director of the State Conservation department, died at his home in Lansing Monday night. He served as the head of this important state department since his appointment in 1927 by Governor Green.

But we people of Grayling rather think of him as a National guardsman. His annual visits here with the guard for the past 20 years won him a large number of intimate Grayling friends. He held the rank of lieutenant colonel in the adjutant general's department. He always held a warm spot in his heart for Grayling and Grayling people. In his passing we have lost a good friend; one who has left with us many pleasant memories of his visits here. He was born in Detroit in 1866. He is survived by the widow and one son, Robert, eight.

IT MAKES US LAUGH!

When Arthur J. Lacy, democratic candidate for governor comes out and tries to smear the reputation of Frank D. Fitzgerald, republican candidate for governor, it is so comical that it makes us laugh. If this isn't the rottenest kind of dirty politics then we don't know what that kind of politics really is. Mr. Lacy may think he is getting away with that but we don't believe the people of Michigan are going to be fooled by that kind of campaigning.

WHAT! NO BIRDS?

Disappointment among local and visiting hunters—because of the scarcity of partridge seems to be the sentiment among most of them. In fact we have heard of but one hunter who bagged the limit of 10 on the opening day—Monday. Bags of one to five birds seem to be about the average, while many return with empty game bags.

Conservation Officer Harry Souders says that in his opinion there are fewer birds here now than there were last spring. He claims that just as it is in many varieties of fruits, birds run in cycles and that he believes this is the declining of the bird cycle and that after another year or two birds will again be plentiful.

Carl Mickelson is of the opinion that many birds are affected by lice and ticks and that the natural remedy for those diseases is no longer available and the birds die. In former years when there were plenty of rotten logs and stumps in the woods the birds would dust themselves in the fine powdered wood rot and that this was nature's remedy for lice and tick trouble. Both theories seem reasonable and quite likely both causes have contributed to the scarcity of birds this season. Mr. Mickelson is a student of nature, especially with wild life and his opinions bear strong weight.

The ping pong tournament played Saturday at the high school in Grayling was won by Camp Higgins Lake. Arnold Dedoes of 672 eliminated all other contestants. A handsome certificate which can be framed and hung in its recreation building will be presented to 672.

Here is real news! 15 men from 672 have started class work in the Freshman College which has commenced at the Rosecommon High School under the supervision of the Central State Teachers College of Mt. Pleasant. A college standard of work will be maintained and college extension credit granted. Each term will consist of 12 weeks work.

LA. Allen of Camp AuSable is away on leave and Dr. Raff is momentarily expecting the necessity of wiring for an emergency leave. His anticipations are making him so exuberant that he frequently and without any warning goes into a dance of sorts. His brother officers are considering casting in on this lately exhibited and unexpected talent by entering the good doctor in the next Amateur Night in Grayling.

Among the boys who joined the OOC trek to the Century of Progress was "Dixie" Oliver of Camp Higgins Lake. He stayed at the Y.M.C.A. rather than at a more shabby hotel and here is a case where virtue was not its only reward—General Bolles, as Dixie remarks, "kissed the Mill of all boys who made their share at that Christian institution."

A crew of men have been busy for the past week excavating the waterworks pipe line on U.S. 27 and lowering it to below the frost line. That line of pipe as well as others in the city were laid far too close to the surface, thus causing a lot of freezing in winter and incurring a lot of expense to the village for thawing out and repairing the breaks. In some places the mains were to within 3 1/2 feet from the surface. The grading of Cedar street may have taken off some of the surface covering but that was but slight. It is hard to imagine anyone laying water pipe lines in this cold region of Michigan so close to the surface. The village engineers are a lot of money for repairs and now for relaying.

great importance in the peace of the Balkans. The assassin, Petrus Kalem, who shot King Alexander of Yugoslavia and Louis Barthou, French foreign minister, in Marseille, "Another Sarajevo" was the question in every mind, and indeed, there was some slight danger that the strife would start another great war. Alexander was just beginning a "good will" visit to France, which was closely tied up with the plan for accord between France and Italy, and Barthou was going to Rome to further the scheme. Yugoslavia is allied to France, but is not at all friendly to Italy, and Alexander hated Mussolini personally, believing that the duke gave moral support to the rebellious Croats. But the king did not want war, and was willing to help along the proposed accord if it was not inimical to his country.

If people does follow after the assassination, it probably will start with revolting in Yugoslavia. Only by assuming and exercising dictatorial powers, was Alexander able to keep peace in the hedgepodge that comprises the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, otherwise Yugoslavia, and it is not certain that there is anyone else there who can do it. Civil war might tempt some other nation to intervene and grab part of the realm, and in that case a general conflict might be precipitated.

Alexander's eldest son, Peter, who was at school in England, was promptly proclaimed king and, being only eleven years old, will rule under a regency of three men who were named in the political will of the murdered monarch. Whether these three can hold the kingdom intact is a question. Only the Serbs are really loyal to the royal house, though all the people had admired the strength and bravery of Alexander, whose life had been attempted four times before.

The death of Alexander was held especially important to Germany by the statement of that country, for they had looked to him to curb to a considerable extent the alleged ambitions of Mussolini. He was considered a close friend of the reich and a potential ally.

France was not only worried by the possibility of trouble in the Balkans, but also deeply mourned the death of Barthou, one of her ablest statesmen and, indeed, one of the ablest in Europe. He had been working assiduously on his plan to secure a security pact for eastern Europe and, although Germany had scored him for trying to build a diplomatic and economic ring about the reich, last June he personally negotiated an accord between France and Germany that was believed to give assurance of peace.

Petrus Kalem, the assassin, who was quickly killed by the French police, was found to have been traveling on a forged Czech passport. Two men who accompanied him on his mission of death were captured near the Swiss border, and another was being hunted down in Fontainebleau forest. Where they came from and what organization was back of the assassinations had not been learned at this writing. The police thought they belonged to a secret Macedonian revolutionary society.

CIVIL war in Spain was precipitated by the radical elements, starting with a 24-hour general strike which was declared by the Socialists and Communists in answer to the formation of a conservative government by Premier Alejandro Lerroux under the domination of reactionary Catholics. Within a few hours bloody conflicts broke out in many regions, and Catalonia, the northeast corner of the country, decided this was the time to establish itself as an independent republic. Luis Companys, president of the state announced: "Catalonia is breaking off relations with the rest of Spain. I demand complete discipline from every one." He called on Gen. Domingo Batet, commander of the garrison at Barcelona, to swear allegiance to the new regime, but that wily soldier snarled for time, and before an hour had passed he received orders from Madrid to declare a state of siege. His troops, battle with the Catalans, and soon both Companys and his fellow leaders copped up in the presidential palace. Reinforcements for the government forces arrived swiftly by land, sea and air.

Then the artillery opened up, and after the palace had been thoroughly shelled, Companys and his colleagues surrendered and were marched to a prison ship in Barcelona harbor. The revolution was over and the new Catalan republic went out of existence. It was not the end of the struggle, but the beginning of a new phase.

THEY LONG moved another political victory in Louisiana. Gov. J. B. Fournier, the state's candidate for judge of the State Supreme court, was over Judge Thomas Porter, whose campaign was based on his opposition to the "tingles."

$22,171.80

The taxpayers of Crawford County have been saved that amount of tax money because Mr. Green took the job as YOUR representative and went to work for you.

Isn't that cause enough for you to keep Mr. Green on the job as your representative in the State Legislature at Lansing? Remember this when you cast your vote on November 6th, and vote for Wm. Green for Representative in State Legislature from Presque Isle District.

GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, chief of staff and now in command of the U. S. Q. combat air force and also of the ground forces, is planning to develop a fighting fleet of super battle planes. The first step will be the organization of the G. H. Q. air forces of at least 1,000 planes grouped in five "wings" based on both coasts and in the Middle West. This would bring the army corps up to about 2,800 planes, making an aerial fighting fleet approximately the equal of any in the world.

"All air forces, in spite of the incessant talk of disarmament and the efforts made at Geneva to curtail them," General MacArthur says, "are increasing. The whole trend throughout the world has been to increase aerial forces. Weapons of war have a certain need and necessity and are very sensitive to retaliation. That is to say, every one wants what the other fellow has, and the trend has been up."

Question Box By ED WYNN The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn: I just received a letter from my nephew who lives in England. He writes me that his wife is suffering with "water on the brain." Can you tell me what that means? Sincerely, U. TELLMER.

Answer: When a woman has "water on the brain" it simply means she has a notion (an ocean) in her head.

Dear Mr. Wynn: I live in a boarding house. I pay $30 a week, but the food they serve is not fit for a pig to eat. What shall I do? Truly yours, L. BETTY KNOWS.

Answer: If the food is really not fit for a pig, just sleep there and get your meals some other place.

Dear Mr. Wynn: I got a job last Monday in a department store in the shoe department. At the end of the first week I was discharged. Can you tell me why? I swear to you I didn't do anything. Sincerely, I. STALL.

Answer: That's way you were discharged.

Dear Mr. Wynn: My birthday was January 4. My girl sent me a pair of gloves for a present, but they are too large for me. What shall I do? Truly yours, A. B. SEEDER.

Answer: Just pour about a half ounce of Scotch whisky on them. It's the kind of Scotch they're selling now, a half ounce will make them tight.

Dear Mr. Wynn: My wife returns home next Saturday from the hospital bringing with her our triplets just five weeks old. I am surprised my wife, as I have just had a nursery fitted out for our new babies. It is a beautiful room and I would like to have a suitable name painted on the door instead of "Nursery." What do you suggest? Yours truly, POP PAH.

Answer: Three babies, five weeks old, in one room? If I were you I would call it the "Baw-room."

MERCHANT PARTY SHOWS A SUCCESS

Monday night at the Temple theatre the Slout Players opened their first Merchant's party night shows. The opening play was a comedy entitled "Lazybones" and from the enthusiastic audience and complimentary remarks after the comedy the Monday night shows at the Temple theatre, are headed for a season of unquestionable success.

The Slout Players are to appear each Monday night at the Temple theatre. Monday, Oct. 22, they will present a lovable, laughable comedy entitled "The Talk of the Town." This is said to be one of the most popular plays that the company presented during their three consecutive summer seasons at Battle Creek, where they presented over one hundred and twenty-five plays.

Special vaudeville will also augment the shows. Merchants bargain tickets may be obtained free from the merchants of Grayling whose names appear in the Slout players advertisement. With these tickets adults can secure a ticket for only 15 cents and children 10 cents. Patronize our local merchants and secure the bargain tickets.

The Boston Terrier Popular

Dogs may come and dogs may go but the breed which has maintained its popularity with the greatest consistency is the Boston terrier. It is the only breed which originated in this country and there are more here than in any other country in the world. There are more registered and shown at dog shows and more sold than any other type.

Handicap to Mt. Everest Ascent

The conquering of Mt. Everest is hindered because the peak, called in Tibetan Chomo-lung-ma, Goddess Mother of the World, is an object of sacred worship. The Rongbuk valley that leads to the glaciers of the mountain is reserved as the retreat of the Holy Hermit alone. The area is one of complete seclusion from the outer world.

SCHOOL AFFAIRS

Friday and Saturday, October 19-20, Teachers' Institutes will be held in Saginaw and Lansing. In the past it has been the policy of the staff of Grayling High school to either attend Institute at regional and hold regular classes this year the same policy will be adhered to, with some of the grades in session as usual, and the entire high school on for the day.

There are also general sessions in which both parents and teachers participate.

The custom of periodical school parties, begun last year under the alternate management of junior and senior classes will continue this year much the same as last, except that each party will be conducted by a committee formed jointly by members of both classes.

The first party under the co-management, and incidentally, the first party of the year, was a great success. Everyone turned out last Friday evening for a good time. Dancing began about 8:30 and lasted until shortly after 11:30.

A very good 5-piece orchestra was obtained for a price low enough to enable the management to keep the price of admission down to a point where this need shut no one out. The floor, although rather rough at first, due to prolonged disuse for dancing purposes, was treated and soon became as smooth as could be desired.

These parties, although never a money-making proposition, are always great fun, and everyone is looking forward to them throughout the winter.

The second game of the now famous Grayling-Frederic series, went to Grayling last Thursday evening to the tune of 19-8.

Our Dean brothers (Smock and Chalker) especially Chalker, who retired the last six men by the strike-out route, were a great help in piling up that comfortable lead.

While we're still "seein' stars" it's only fair to mention Brown and Ferguson. Both those boys have an eye on the old apple, and a yen for the fence, although in this case there being no fence handy they tried for the river.

Yes sir, folks, this is sure one great series. If you could take time off to go clear down to Detroit just to see the Cards and the Tigers push that old pill around, boy, now I'm tellin' yah, you can't afford to miss this chance of a lifetime—only 9 miles away with admission free, and what I mean, it's worth a million.

Folks, take a look at your calendar. Here it is the middle of October. Does that mean anything to you? Of course it does. Bird season opened Monday, Hallowe'en only a short way away. It won't be long to winter sports. Everything as it should be. Ah, "Ain't life grand?" What I'd give to be back in school again. Yes? So you think? Well, we'll admit we entertained many of the same thoughts ourselves—until Tuesday when Mr. Poor posted a notice on the bulletin board—such a small notice but oh so full of meaning.

"Six weeks exams are due Monday and Tuesday, October 22 and 23."

To parody a once popular song: "Yesterday's sunshine is turning to rain, Yesterday's loafing is bringing me pain."
